

Feb 23, 2015

Crab House Coming to Colonial Beach

The former Fat Freda's location, which later became Kelsea's Kitchen will now be known as Shady Lane Crab House. Dean Nininger is at the helm of what is sure to be the next big thing at the beach! Stay tuned for more details! 119 Hawthorn St., Colonial Beach VA 22443

Continue reading "Crab House Coming to Colonial Beach"

Feb 20, 2015

Plan Your Colonial Beach Vacation

Keep warm on these frigid winter days by planning your Spring and/or Summer Colonial Beach vacation! There's lots of fun in store with many great events on the calendar like our Potomac River Festival, 4th of July Fireworks celebration and Classic Car shows. Attractions include historical venues (birthplaces of Presidents Washington and Monroe, and General Robert E. Lee, and Alexander Graham Bell's summer home) nature sites (Westmoreland State Park, Voorhees Nature Preserve) sporting venues (Colonial Beach Dragway, Rock Springs Archery, semi-pro football) and plenty of shops and over 25 different eateries for your dining pleasure. Activities include trolley rides, boat charters, kayak rentals, off-track betting, pier fishing, strolling the Boardwalk, lounging on the beach and so much more. Come spend some time in our riverside resort town!

Continue reading "Plan Your Colonial Beach Vacation"

Feb 17, 2015

Snow Show in Colonial Beach

The first measurable snow of the season fell on President's Day leaving over 8" in Colonial Beach. Most attractions like Stratford Hall and Washington's Birthplace closed for the day and some businesses were open for business (Ledo Pizza, River Gym, Rankin's Hardware and more). Luckily,

Spring is not too far off.