Animal Communication Workshop March 22nd

ONE-DAY ANIMAL COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP LEVELS I AND II

Saturday, March 22, 2014 9:00am – 5:00pm 37 4th Street, Colonial Beach, VA

Instructor: Donna Doyle

LEVEL I:

Have you ever wished you could understand what your animal friends were thinking or wanted to tell you? Join us at this workshop and learn techniques you can use to increase your ability to communicate with animals. You will enhance your relationship with your animal friends and better understand their needs, feelings, behavior and problems. This workshop will help you to recognize times you have already experienced telepathic communication with animals.

- Learn how to smudge to cleanse the area around you.
- Participate in exercises and meditations, which will increase your receptivity to telepathic communication.
- Learn how to focus and quiet your mind.
- Practicing sending and receiving messages – first with a human partner and then with animals.
- NEW to the class – We will do exercises that will help you to determine how you will be able to communicate best: i.e. Visually, Audibly, Kinetically or Intuitively.
- Explore the viewpoints and feelings from within a specific animal.

Penelope Smith, a pioneer in animal communication, first developed this workshop, which has been successfully taught to thousands; one of those people being Anita Curtis who taught the techniques to Donna. She will be teaching those techniques as well as others that she learned from attending workshops of Dr. Patricia Jennings, DCH, RH.

LEVEL II:

This workshop is designed to enhance and broaden the skills learned in Level I. You must attend Level I before taking this workshop.

- Learn the technique of contacting departed animals.
- Learn about Gemstones and Crystals and their connection to the Universe.
- Learn how to see Aura and Spirits. Learn how to communicate through dousing.
- You will be given individual attention if needed.

Registration will start promptly at 9:00a.m. and the class will begin at 9:15. Lunch break will be at 12:00. Bring your own, or there are places close by to order from.
