Colonial Beach: Paradise for History Buffs

The Colonial Beach area is brimming with important history. There's a historical marker for the 1720's Bristol Iron Works, and another honoring Charles B. Smith, a technical sergeant and crew chief of the famed 99th Fighter Squadron the Tuskegee Airmen.

Telephone inventor Alexander Graham Bell had a summer home here, which is now a lovely Bed & Breakfast Inn. United States Presidents George Washington and James Monroe were born here and Confederate General Robert E. Lee was born not far from here in 1807 at Stratford Hall Plantation, also home to two signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Also within easy driving distance is the capture site of President Abraham Lincoln's assassin, John Wilkes Booth as well as the birthplace of the 4th U.S. President, James Madison.

So as you can see, Colonial Beach is one place to be if you love History!
