Bikefest Day 4 Recap

Wow, the First Annual Colonial Beach Bikefest is in the books!

Day 4 saw somewhat better weather, with just a sprinkle here and there. Bands entertained the crowds around town and vendor tents on town hill and the boardwalk continued to draw visitors. The bike show at the American Legion was the main event for the day, with many beautiful bikes participating. Trophies were handed out at 4pm.

Big thank you's go out to all the attendees, the bands and vendors for this event.

Special thanks to all the hard-working volunteers and the sponsors (All American Harley-Davidson, 97.7 The Rocket, Chamber of Commerce, Miller Lite, Winegardner Chevrolet, High Tides and Cyberbility, to name a few!)

Bikefest Day 3 Recap

Day 3 of Bikefest in Colonial Beach saw rain all morning and a constant drizzle for most of the rest of the day. The main event, a free concert featuring Swamp da Wamp and Molly Hatchet took place on a cloudy, breezy and cool Town Hill.

There were bands at many venues around town including the Eagles and American Legion clubs, which were open to the public. The Dragstrip, Dockside and High Tides had bands playing all day long as well.

The night wrapped up with Led Zeppelin tribute band Kashmir at High Tides and the International Bikini Team contest and the Sam Grow Band at Dockside.

Day 4 features more contests! Bike Show, Hot Wings, Hot Dog eating and Ultimate Beer Gut!

Bikefest Day 1 Recap

Day 1 of Bikefest is in the books. Colonial Beach enjoyed beautiful weather and our Varsity Drifters football team triumphed over Rappahannock with a score of 36-0 over at the high school on 1st Street.

Bands Franklin Square, Longreef and R&R Train entertained at High Tides and Dockside, and the members of Longreef even modeled Harley-Davidson gear in the fashion show.

Contestants did their best to thaw out icy clothing in the Frozen T-Shirt Contest.

Full Throttle Saloon's Fajita Mike was spotted at Dockside and posed for pictures with fans.

Classic and antique rides were at Spider's motorcycle swap meet at The Red Barn in Oak Grove. This will be a daily event during Bikefest.

Town Hill has vendor booths set up all over it and the stage is set up for the big Molly Hatchet show with Swamp da Wamp on Saturday.
